

Reflexology Association of Canada

The Professional's Choice in Comprehensive Reflexology Education

With over 30 years of research and experience, we invite you to an exciting exploration of what it means to be a truly skilled therapist. Included in our hands-on experiential classes we emphasize the development of knowledge and skill, professional preparation, and working with self-awareness.

Some of the benefits of becoming a member with RAC include:

- National & international standardized Curriculum and exams for practitioner certification courses in Foot Hand & Ear to ensure a high standard of training and acceptance wherever you practice (i.e. RAC is accepted by the city of Toronto and surrounding districts for required licensure to practice)
- National Association with a history of providing excellence in education since 1976~ Curriculum is updated regularly - Federally Chartered- the Bylaws are approved by Industry Canada
- Fellowship and support nationwide ~ belonging to a professional organization
- A national referral system for certified Reflexologists
- Membership with a professional Canadian body
- International affiliation with Reflexology Associations abroad
- Advanced and Continuing Education Programs for further professional training
- Teacher Training Certification Program
- Seminars ~ Annual General Meeting
- National newsletter – keeps you up to date with Canadian and International news
- Web site, yellow pages advertising, marketing and promotional material
- Your certification qualifies for membership in Provincial Associations where applicable
- Charts, brochures and other Reflexology products available to help promote your business
- International teachers and members in several countries
- Certified members are eligible to serve as a Director on the National Board of Directors ~ these are elected volunteer positions
- RCRT™ (Registered Canadian Reflexology Therapist) designation. This designation must be maintained through active participation in the RAC CEU program once certified.
- National and international recognition, including a listing in the RAC National Networking and Referral Service Program (once certification has been completed)
- An RAC Certificate and Transcript, plus a Newly Certified membership and CEU package, sent to all members upon completion of their course.
